

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION – WHOLESALE INVESTORS

If you are applying to invest A$500,000, no additional documentation should be required unless notified by the Trustee.

If you are an Australian investor who is an individual investing less than A$500,000 additional documentation will be required to certify that you are a wholesale investor in the form of a current qualified accountant's certificate issued within the preceding 2 years stating that the investor has net assets of least A$2.5 million (which may include the net assets of a company or trust controlled by the investor) or gross income for each of the last two financial years of at least A$250,000 (which may include the gross income of a company or trust controlled by the investor).

Australian investors who are not individuals and investing less than A$500,000 will be required to provide proof that the proposed investor is a 'professional investor' or a 'wholesale investor' as defined under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) for example:

- Is a company or a trust (including a self-managed super fund) controlled by a person who has (or if controlled by more than one person each person has) a current qualified accountant's certificate issued within the preceding 2 years stating that the person has net assets of least A$2.5 million (which may include the net assets of a company or trust controlled by the person) or gross income for each of the last two financial years of at least A$250,000 (which may include the gross income of a company or trust controlled by the person), or
- Is a large business (is a manufacturer and employs 100 or more people or otherwise a business employing 20 or more people), or
- Holds an Australian financial services licence, or
- Is a listed entity or a related body corporate of a listed entity, or
- Is an APRA regulated entity (and not a trustee of a superannuation fund, approved deposit fund, pooled superannuation trust or public sector superannuation scheme in each case within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993), or
- Is a person that controls at least $10 million (including any amount held by an associate or under a trust that the person manages).

If none of the above categories of professional investor apply, please contact the Trustee.
